FOREWORD

As we approached graduation, we paused to reflect upon the events of our high school days. An hour-glass could perhaps illustrate the time which seemed to pass so slowly at first, but when graduation finally approached, we realized that the time had actually passed quickly.

We remembered the beginning of our first day as Seniors, as if it were yesterday. We quickly adjusted to our new status and the hard work involved. We thought that our previous three years were carefree and easy compared to our last year of work. As the year passed, we fulfilled our duties as club officers and active club members with great pleasure and pride. Some of us discovered the glory of winning sports trophies or merely acting as a member of a hard-playing team. We completed our high school years by attending the formal Prom; and, finally, we did reach the end—graduation.

Graduation was not really the end, but a climax in our lives, as it will be for all future graduating classes. The sands of time will continue to run—slowly at first—too quickly at graduation time—and then, there will always be the next class to ponder the mysteries of time.

DEDICATION

"Character is like a tree, and reputation like its shadow. The shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing."

Your willingness to help and to guide us and your co-operation in all our affairs has shown us the value of a faithful advisor. You have advised us during all four years, and you have shown us the way to a life of our own choosing. With your guidance in the making of our characters, we move on to the future.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

It is well first to raise the question "what constitutes richness?" Ten or twenty years from now some of the poorest of you will have money . . . some of the richest none. What, then, constitutes wealth? For one thing, a good home . . . fellowship ruled by love . . . where you are loved and can love in the best sense of that term.

A second item is our friends who stand by us in times of prosperity and adversity. Friends who love us for what we are, despite our faults.

A third item of wealth is useful work. If you can be of use in the world, leave it a little better than you found it, you shall have been rich.

Finally, the greatest wealth is your belief . . . your church. It is this that gives meaning to all else. As you leave to "seek your fortune" . . . to become rich, may I wish you success and richness of life.

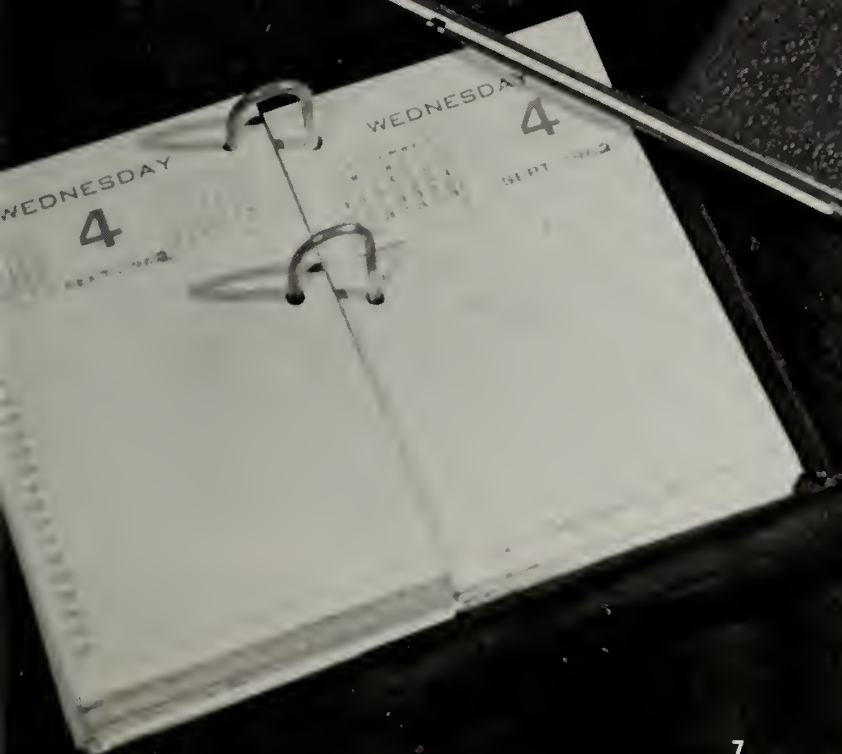

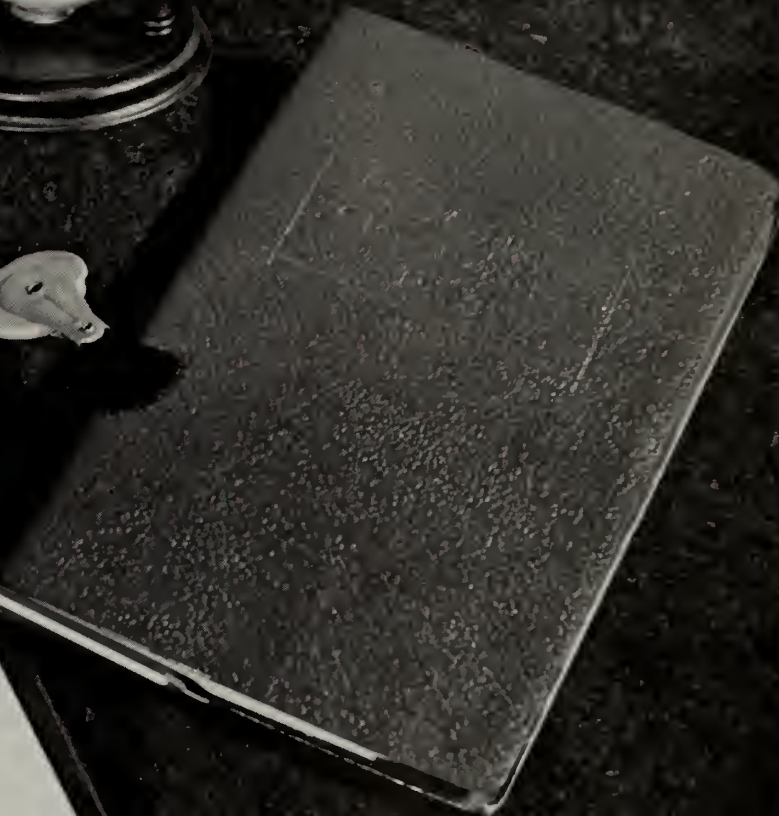

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Although other Seniors will come to Norton High School just as there have been others in the past, your contribution of happy service, cheerful help, and enthusiasm has always been unique. I hope that from your experiences here you have learned that—only in giving to others can you find true happiness.

SENIOR

The Senior year is the busiest one in high school when the demands on one's time and efforts are greater than ever before. On the following pages, we will prove that the year was not one long party. This pictorial story shows that we worked hard so that we may look back with pleasure (or regret), and others may look forward to their Senior year.

Pictured above: Officers of the Class of 1963 were responsible for the success of all senior activities during the past year. They are, left to right, Sally Jennings, Secretary; Bill Alston, Vice-President; Pat Estee, President; and Roger Ramsey, Treasurer.

Student Council serves as Norton High School's student governing body. Last Fall, campaigns were held to elect officers for this group. The Problems of Democracy classes sponsored the political parties, Liberalists and Actionists, for the campaign. For the first time in the history of Norton High, the presidential candidate was unopposed, and one party took all of the offices. The officers elected were William Alston, President; Diane Rushia, Secretary; Barry Malloy, Vice-President; and Patricia Estee, Treasurer.

Several money-making events were held during the year, and some of the campaign promises were fulfilled. This year was a successful one for Student Council.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization which recognizes outstanding students on the basis of their scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Sophomores are inducted as probationary members, and juniors and seniors as permanent members. Several functions were presented by the Society this year.

On February 8, 1963, the annual Honors Recognition Social was held for those students who were on the honor roll for the first two terms. At the social, Dr. Paul Cressey of Wheaton College spoke on the education in the Philippines. At the Induction in March, Dr. Prentice, Persident of Wheaton, spoke before the entire school. The best students from the three classes were inducted at this time.

Each year, beginning in September, a staff of Seniors prepares the Sojourn for publication. The editor-in-chief and the two associate editors, do the actual planning, while the Business Managers' staff takes care of financial matters. The Photography Editor must be sure that all pictures are taken on schedule, and the Advertising staff solicits advertisements from local businesses. Finally, the Quotations staff decides the various phrases suitable for each Senior.

All staffs have one goal in mind, to present a yearbook through which members of the graduating class, and others, may recall their high school years.

Under the leadership of Co-editors Robin Paulding and Carol Janelle, with Assistant Editor Elaine Haskell, the Informer passed its second year as a professionally printed student newspaper. School news articles, editorials, and feature articles were among the features of each issue which interested all students.

CLUB LETTERS TO LUCERNE

LETTERS TO LUCERNE was the Dramatic Club's second presentation of the year. The play was somewhat of a change for the club, as it was more of a strict drama and less comedy. Several of the cast had previously appeared in plays and once again did an excellent job in portraying the characters. Pictured here, are several scenes photographed at the dress rehearsals.

GOLD KEY SOCIETY

The Gold Key Society is the school's service organization. Woodrow Wilson, Captain; and Diane Fitton, Lieutenant, assigned various people to act as monitors in different sections of the school. Senior boys acted as hall monitors between classes so that traffic would travel smoothly through the corridors.

Latin Club is one of the oldest clubs at Norton High School. Each year, the most important event involves the initiation of freshman "slaves." Freshmen, last year, were initiated early in the school year and sold at the annual slave sale. In the spring, a Roman wedding ceremony and banquet was held according to ancient Roman traditions.

Future Teachers of America was designed for those Juniors and Seniors interested in a teaching career. In this club, members assisted subject teachers of their choice, to discover whether these same students wished to continue teacher-training studies.

FRENCH CLUB

In addition to the study of French in the classroom, the French Club was formed to give students an opportunity to learn more about French culture. Members learned French Christmas carols and held a caroling party which the townspeople could enjoy. Other areas of French culture are also studied.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club was a very large organization this year because a course in Chemistry was offered in the school. The club's activities included a trip to the U. S. Army Quartermaster Research Laboratories where students saw actual biological and chemical research being done. During the latter part of the school year, members presented individual reports on different phases of Chemistry.

NORTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The Norton High School Band is a very active organization. They rehearse many times each week and perform at several concerts and school assemblies. They participated in parades all through the past year and once again participated in the South-Eastern Music Festival. The Majorettes are also an important part of the band and participate with it in all parades and concerts.

The Majorettes are a very important part of Norton High School. They march with the band whenever the band marches and they also appear with the band at the Parents' Night Basketball Game. The girls are considered part of the band and appear with them at all times. The Band Drum Major leads the band in parades and is the head of the band.

GUIDANCE OFFICE AIDES

The Guidance Office Aides are chosen to assist the guidance counselors by typing bulletins and doing various errands.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

The Modern Dance Club was established this year for those girls interested in the dance. Miss Alma Anderson is the Advisor.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club, a select group of sophomore, junior, and senior girls, is directed by Mrs. Judith Estes. The Glee Club performed at musical concerts throughout the year.

The Ramblin' Boys, under the direction of Mrs. J. Estes and Mr. C. Haller, was a vocal-instrumental group who primarily sang folk songs. The group was formed for enjoyment, and performed for the school at various times.

STUDENT LEADERS

The Student Leaders are a group of girls very active in Physical Education. They aid Miss Anderson, their advisor, with many of her classes and often conduct the entire class by themselves.

The Model Car Club was formed to design and build plastic model cars. Weekly meetings were held throughout the year.

JUNIOR LIBRARY CLUB

The Junior Library Club consists of members in the seventh and eighth grades who aid in the library during some of their free periods. The members learn much about library work and become very able assistants.

JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

The Junior Student Council is a very active organization within the Junior High School. It sponsors several seventh and eighth grade dances during the year. The Junior Student Council sends to Senior Student Council a representative who reports the Senior activities to his Junior group and informs the high school of its plans.

JUNIOR GOLD KEY SOCIETY

Junior Gold Key functions in much the same manner as the Senior Gold Key. The seventh and eighth grade members act as monitors in the halls and help to provide a better organized school for their fellow students.

JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The Junior Honor Society members are chosen from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. The seventh grade members are probationary and must be chosen again in the eighth grade to become full members.

Pictured above, bottom row to top, are the members of the Junior Honor Society. Left to right, they are, Row one: J. Azevedo (Treasurer); D. Burbank (Vice-President); M. Thomas (President), P. Moy (Secretary); Mr. J. Blount (Advisor); Row two: S. Flynn, N. Hardent, S. Hall, M. Bartley, S. Melanson; Row three: S. Lynch, M. Collins, A. Franklin, C. Jackson.

The Lancer basketball team had another fine season in the Tri-County League this year. After high-scoring senior, Roger Ramsey, sustained an injury which prevented his playing for four weeks, the scoring load fell for the most part to Sophomores, Cliff Reynolds and Bob Angus, and junior, Joe Lynch. Ramsey had been second in the area scoring department prior to his injuries. The members of the team were: (seniors) Captain Roger Ramsey, John Willis, Steve Wood, Ed Whitcomb; (juniors) Charlie Trabucco, Jack Howard, Joe Lynch; (sophomores) Cliff Reynolds, Bob Angus, Paul Rich, Jack Trainor; (freshmen) David Brown and Steve Prosky.

Norton came in third in Division II of the Tri-County League behind Hopedale and Bellingham. With a 12-4 record in league play, the Lancers were unsuccessful in tournament competition, losing to Provincetown in the Bay State (49-46), and to Bourne in the Tech Tournament (52-47).

SANDY

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The junior Varsity basketball team is considered to be the training team for the future Varsity basketball players. This year the team was coached by Mr. Albert Nuttall. A new captain of the squad was chosen for each game. The team won 16 and lost 6 games.

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

The junior high school cheering squad is made up of girls from the Seventh and Eighth grades. Each girl must maintain a high school standing in order to be on the cheering squad. The cheerleaders are advised and instructed by Miss Alma Andersson.

EIGHTH GRADE TEAM

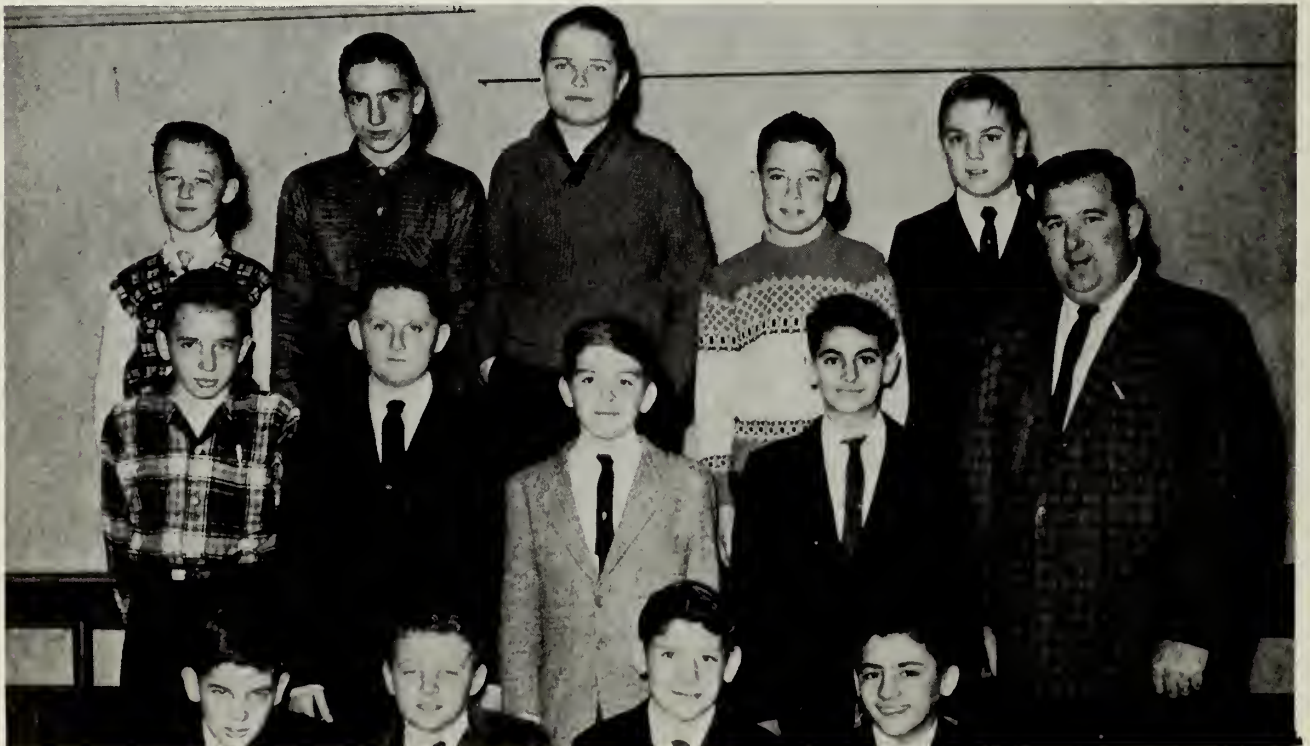

The Eighth grade team did not, unfortunately, have a successful season. The coach hopes for better results with next year's team.

SEVENTH GRADE TEAM

THE VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

Norton expects to have one of the best Baseball teams in its history this year. Last year's team is still intact except for Jim Watson, who graduated. Coach Ford hopes to weld together a strong team from last year's hold-ons and some outstanding freshmen from last year's successful freshman team. Coach Ford expects spectacular performances from seniors: John Zaccardi, John Willis, and Roger Ramsey, and from underclassmen: Bob Angus, Ed Bouchard, Charlie Trabucco, and Richard Marston.

Last year, Norton nearly placed first in its division of the Tri-County League and this year, Coach Ford hopes for a championship season. The team will certainly be a factor in 1963's Massachusetts pennant race.

Last year's track team did quite well, considering that most of the opposing teams came from larger schools. This year the "back-bone" of the team consists of seniors, Ian Dunlop and Dennis Shaw. The outcome of the team depends upon Ian, Dennis and several under-class distance runners. Coach Haller will be watching the freshman milers, who did well on the Cross-Country team. The major problem of the track team is not having a proper cinder track. Since the team has no track no home meets will be scheduled.

Pictured left is Ian Dunlop, Captain of the Varsity track team this year. Ian is a senior and has been a member of the varsity track squad since his eighth grade year. As of his Junior year, Ian holds the school records for the 100 and 220 yard dashes and he usually accounts for 11 to 13 points in the team's total score. This year the "ace" sprinter hopes to break his old records in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Pictured right is the track team's star shot-putter Dennis Shaw. Dennis is a senior this year and has served the track team for five years. Dennis holds the school records for the shot-put and discus. This year, Dennis is expected to break his old records by quite a distance. Many times Dennis has helped the team in a "tight spot" by gaining 10 points in the shot-put and discus events and by running part of the 880 yard relay.

CROSS COUNTRY

The otherwise blockbuster (1-6) cross-country season was brightened only by the hopes for the future which glimmered. The 1963 cross-country team will see only John Willis gone, while lettermen Jack Howard, Joe Lynch, Karl Dahlman, Adrian Dunlop, George Gilchrist, Bill Stares and a host of promising Freshmen return.

Lynch was the team's leading runner in 1962, and, unless another back injury benches him, he will continue his high-scoring record. In future years, Freshmen will form a strong nucleus for the team. Captain Jack Howard drives his teammates to greater efforts by his excellent example.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Elizabeth is the hard-taxed center of an irritating household. Her husband is a dullard; one of her daughters is hysterically in love with a cynical playboy; the other is very stridently precocious. There's a selfish old mother who hoards antiques and a fussy father-in-law who chases fires, and a nosy house guest and a bossy cook. Most of these people are worse than usual because they're panting after a legacy that Elizabeth has received. Having reached the breaking point, Elizabeth contracts a nice case of amnesia, in which twenty years are blotted out and she is a girl again. This enables her not only to indulge in caprices like taking up with her daughter's young man, but also to tell all the members of the family what she thinks of them. All these doings show results that promise well for the future of Elizabeth and her family. Mr. Homer Paulus directed the play.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM 1962

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on June 2, 1962 in the Norton High School Cafeteria. A year's work of planning by the Class of 1963 ended that night when everyone began to dance to the music of "Ebb Tide."

Co-chairmen of the event were Robin Paulding and John Willis who were assisted by our advisors. The theme of the Prom was a "Fantasy of the Sea" with a large sand castle, the center of attraction.

Christmas Wonderland was the theme of the annual Christmas Dance sponsored by the Senior Class. The dance was held on December 20, 1962 in the high-school auditorium and music was provided by the "Refugees."

WONDERLAND

The Christmas Dance was a semi-formal event and the theme was developed by the use of Christmas wreaths, and a Christmas tree, placed on the stage. Several door prizes were awarded by the editor and co-editors of the yearbook.

CHRISTMAS

The annual Christmas Concert was held on Wednesday evening, December 19, 1962 in the high school auditorium. Under the direction of Mrs. Judith Estes and Mr. Frank Montesanti, the concert featured the High School Girls' Glee Club, the Elementary Boys' Choir, the High School Chorus, and the High School Band.

The Girls' Glee Club sang several selections from Handel's Messiah, including the famous Hallelujah chorus, during which the audience stood. Mrs. Joanne Montesanti was guest soprano soloist.

CONCERT

Mrs. Hetty Preble Archer was accompanist.

The Elementary Boys' Choir sang traditional songs and a Madonna and Child tableau was used as a background for their performance. The High School Chorus sang three Christmas songs, and the Band played some musical selections with solos by freshmen: Karl Dahlman, Jon O'Connor, and David Brown.
